

Conklin Residence
WaterColor, Santa Rosa Beach, Florida

Project: Custom single family residence

Special Features: Neutral colors complement the wood beamed ceilings in this Traditional Neighborhood Development home. Features include a second floor balcony and covered porches on both the front and rear of the residence. A fireplace and crown molding top off the look in this elegant home.

Project Details: CDP provided complete architectural and interior design services.