

Landings at College Pointe, Eckerd College St. Petersburg, Florida

Project: Residential development

Special Features: Nearly every home site and common building is facing the water in this Caribbean meets the South meets Key West community. The name for this blended design style has been coined 'New South Composite'. Large overhangs, expansive balconies, and open porches allow residents to enjoy the Florida landscape.

Project Details: CDP provided master planning and schematic design services.